ORDER
DISMISSING AS MOOT

BEFORE: KRAMER, CHIEF JUDGE; MAZE AND TAYLOR, JUDGES.

On November 2, 2017, this Court entered an order requiring Movants to show cause why their motion for interlocutory relief pursuant to Kentucky Rules of Civil Procedure (CR) 65.07 should not be dismissed for failure to name an indispensable party. The parties have responded. It has come to this Court's attention that the trial court entered an order on October 17, 2017, which dismissed the claims underlying the temporary injunction. Therefore, the Court ORDERS that the motion be DISMISSED as MOOT. The Court further ORDERS that No. 2017-CA-001047-I be likewise DISMISSED as MOOT.
